

Alfred and the Dragon

ACTIVITY
BOOK

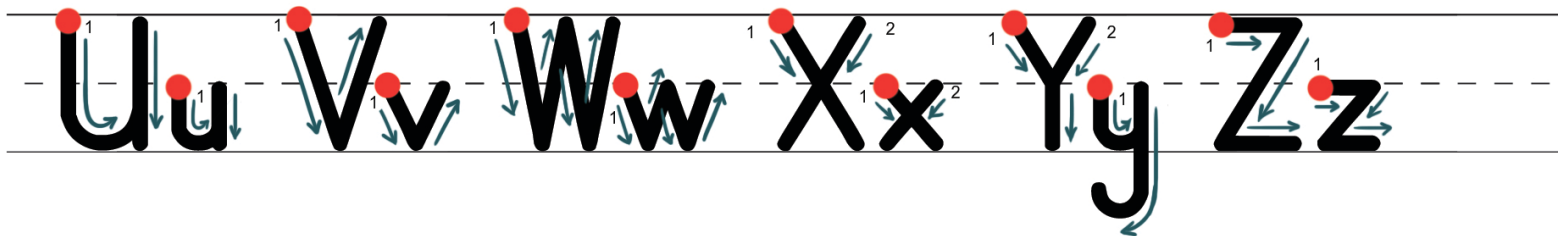

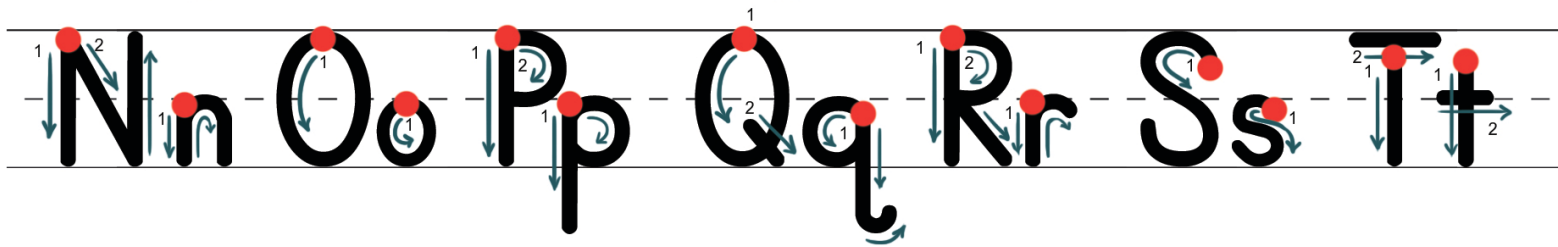

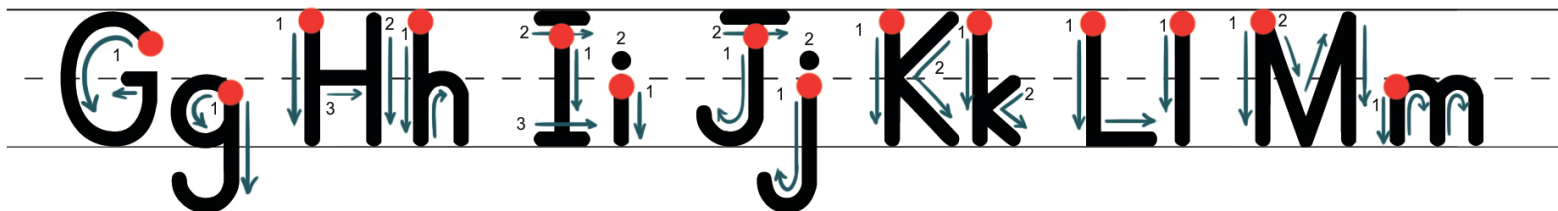

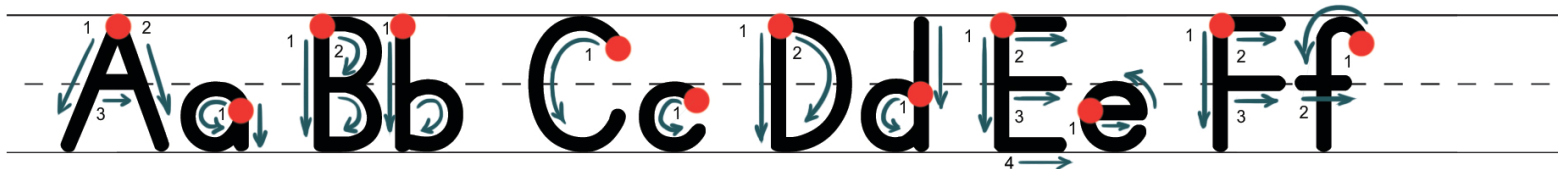

Name:

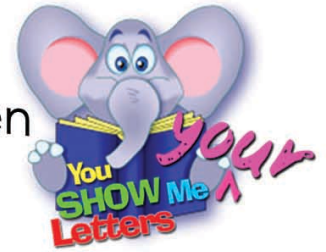

How to Print Letters

The red dot on each letter indicates the starting point. The numbers and arrows indicate the order and direction of the strokes. A note to teachers and parents: Teach your child correctly. Bad habits are hard to break!

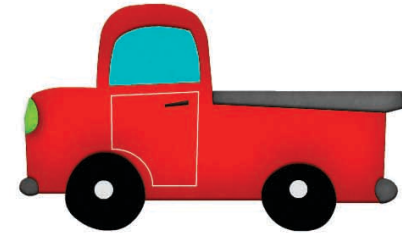

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Aa

Bb

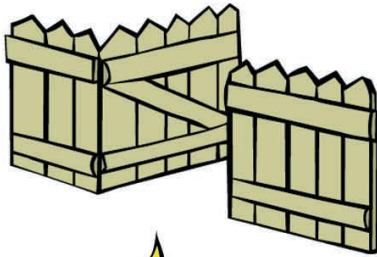

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Cc

Dd

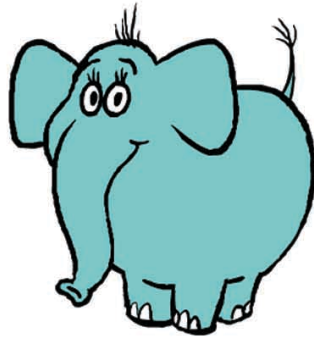

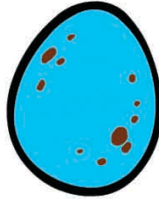

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Ee

Ff

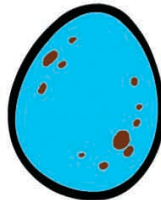

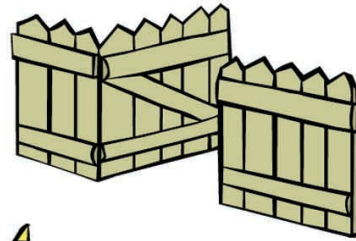

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Gg

Hh

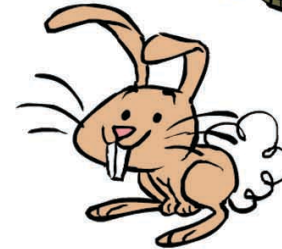

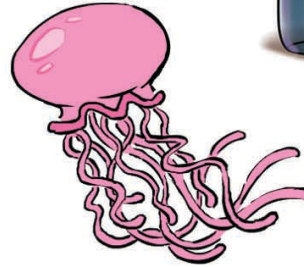

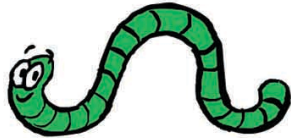

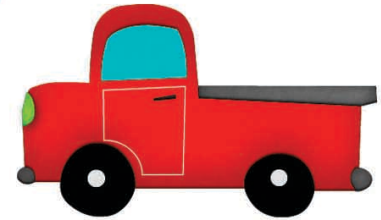

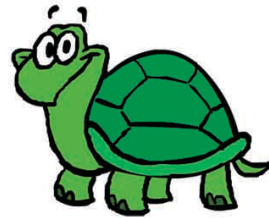

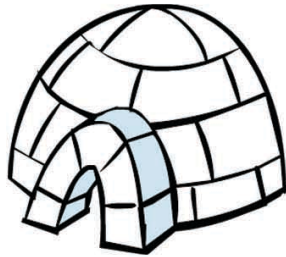

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Ii

Jj

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

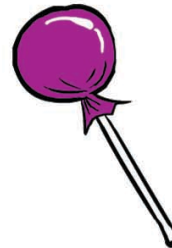

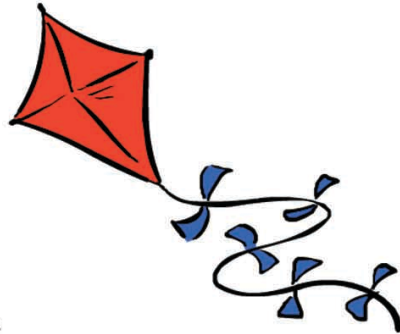

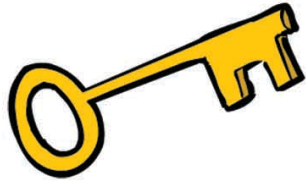

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Kk

Ll

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Mm

Nn

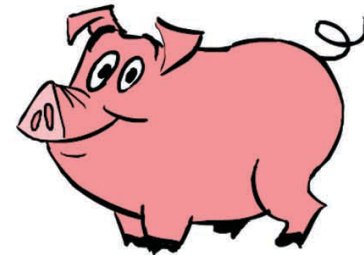

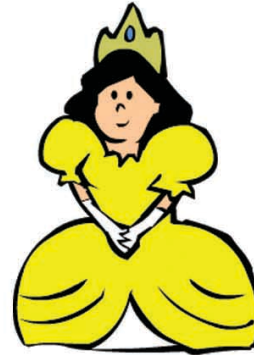

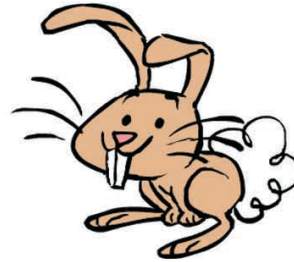

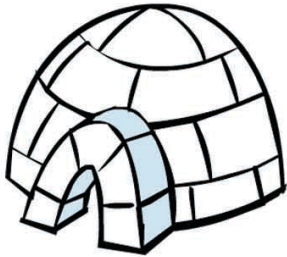

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Oo

Pp

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

Sound Off!

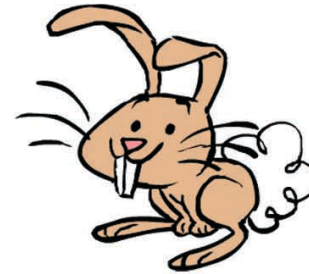

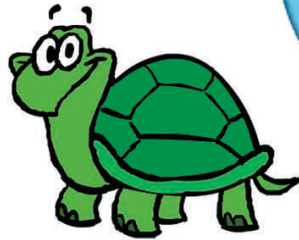

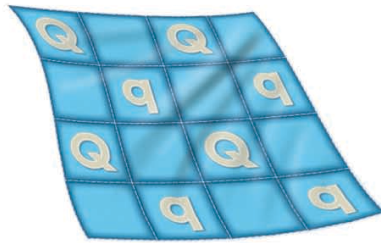

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Qq

Rr

???

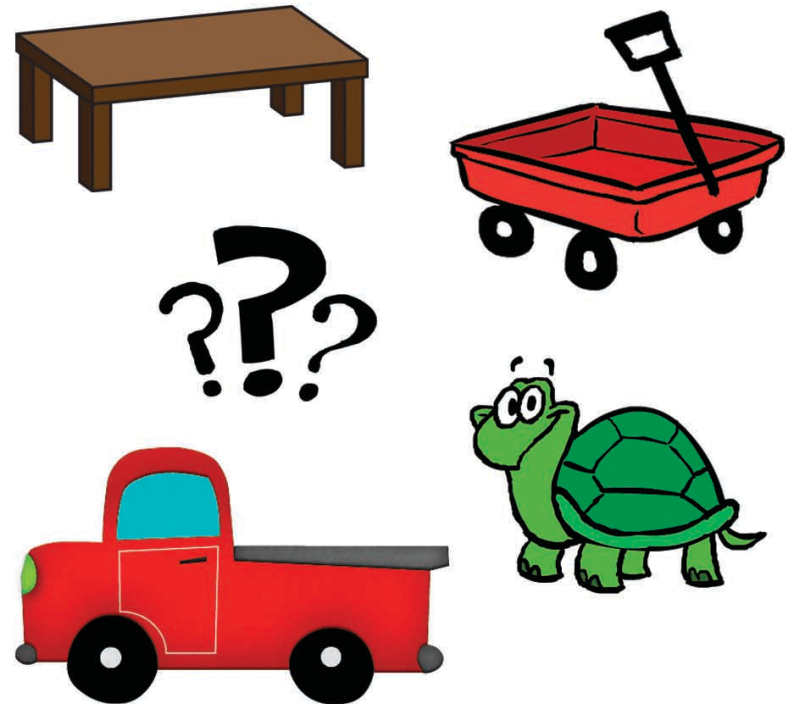

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Ss

Tt

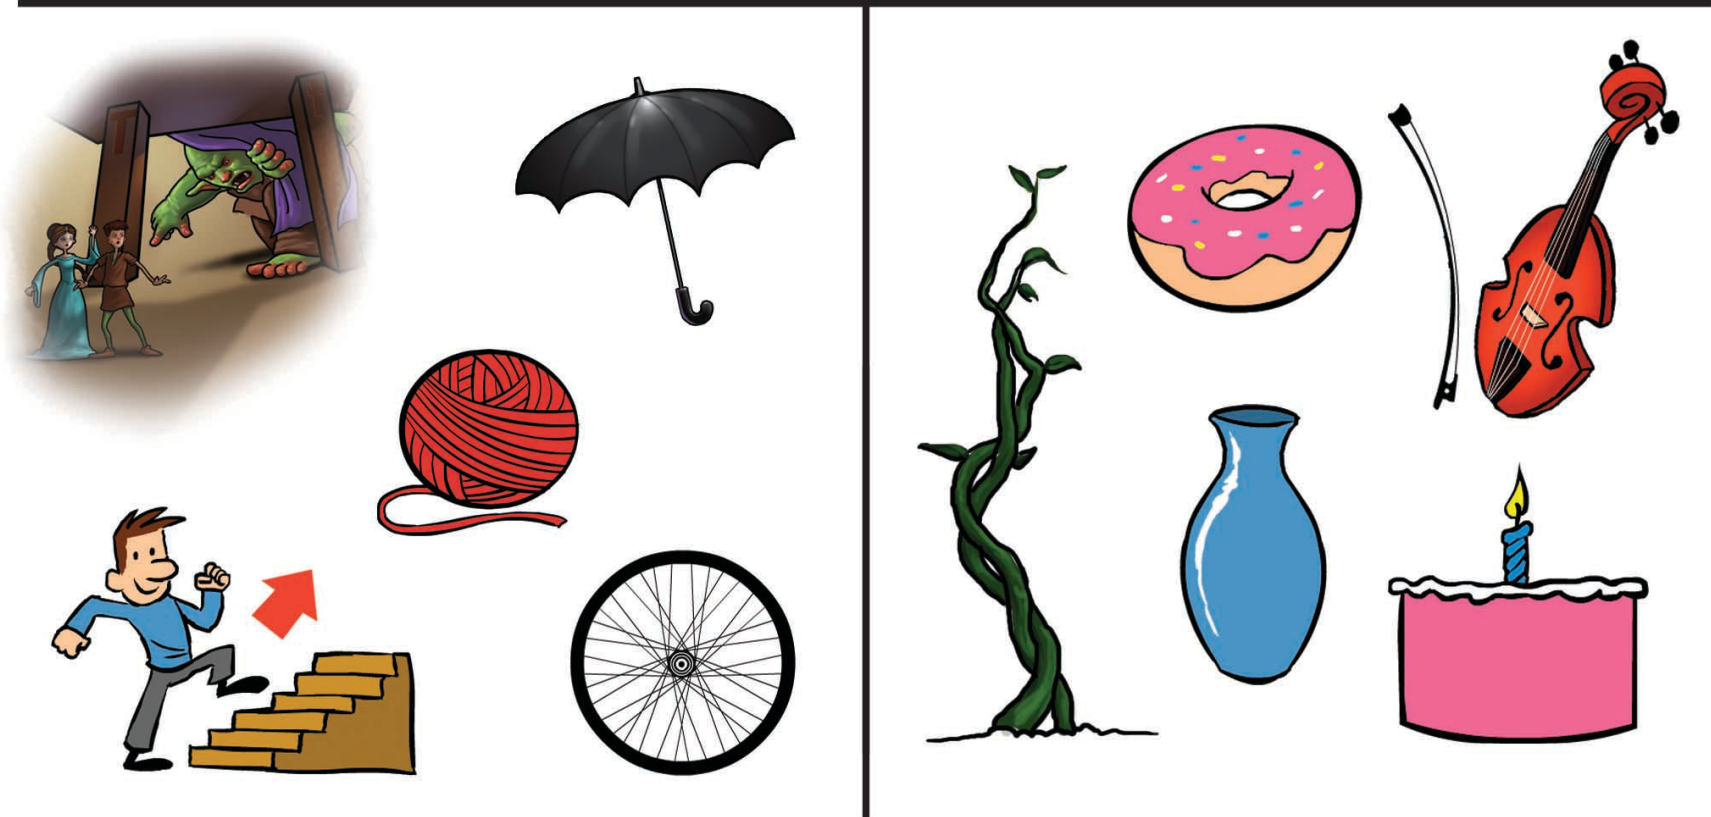

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Uu

Vv

Sound Off!

Hmm ... something is different on this page.

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of the letter W.

Circle the pictures that end with the letter X.

Ww

Xx

Sound Off!

Circle the pictures that begin with the sound of each letter, then

Yy

Zz

